

FILES RECENTLY RELEASED BY THE GOVERNMENT
UNDER THE THIRTY YEAR RULE.

The following ADM [Admiralty] files have recently been released and are now available in the public domain from the National Archives [NA].

All are associated with the

HERBERT LOTT NAVAL TRUST FUND

and date from 1928.

I have purchased ADM 116/3714 and will shortly publish it here on this page. Some of the documents are large and to purchase them at a copying price of £0.40 per page can mean big money, plus postage of course often up to £10.00 for example.

Note some of these titles and their dates. One in particular which grabs my imagination is ADM 199/1892. 1922 is before the HLNFT was officially set-up and you can bet your bottom dollar that the Admiral Submarines pack will have lots of wonderful stories.
